

THE NATIONAL CENTER FOR CREATIVE AGING

Program Calendar 2009-2010

The National Center for Creative Aging was founded in 2001 and is dedicated to fostering an understanding of the vital relationship between creative expression and healthy aging and to developing programs that build on this understanding. Based in Washington, DC, NCCA is a non-profit organization with 2,700 members and is affiliated with The George Washington University.

Program Services provided by NCCA include Research and Development; Advocacy and Public Relations; Technical Assistance; and Educational Services including both on-site and distance learning; Keynote presentations and consultant services.

Program services made possible through the generosity of our sponsors and partners, including: MetLife Foundation, Nathan Cummings Foundation, NAMM Foundation, National Endowment for the Arts, Small-Alper Foundation, the NCCA Membership.

NCCA Staff Gay Hanna, PhD, MFA, Executive Director; Susan Perlstein, Director of Education and Training; Katie Fitzgerald, Program Manager; Shari Sliwa, Operational Manager; Liz Anderson Simmons, Partnership Coordinator.
